NEW Spring 2015 Science and Social Studies Scores Available

On-time results for score records that could be matched with students pre-identified in spring 2015 are available in the Online Reporting System.

Discrepant test records will not be available on Oct. 12; discrepant records include those that could not be matched with a Pre-ID record and records for students who had more than one test opportunity for a test part. Information for districts that must resolve discrepant records will be forthcoming.
