

BRADFORD ELEMENTARY

May 17, 2017

RIGHT TO READ WEEK

Mrs. Cable worked hard to prepare a wonderful week. Each day students participated in "Stop, Drop, and Read." Teachers were involved by having a door/bulletin board contest. We also had classroom reading competitions.

There was a "reading room" where students went each day to read quietly. The theme was camping, so students were able to read in tents, sleeping bags, lawn chairs, etc.

We had dress-up days:

Monday: Cozy up with a good book – Pajama Day

Tuesday: Camped out with a good book – Dress like a Camper

Wednesday: Hats off for Cathy Anderson Jones – Hat Day

Thursday: Reading is a treasure – Dress to Impress

Friday: Crazy about Reading – Crazy Sock Day

 Students who participated received a ticket to enter into a drawing for daily prizes.

BOOK FAIR RESULTS

- We had the best turnout yet!
- We earned $3,058 to purchase books!

GRANDPARENTS' DAY

A big thank you to Mr. Sherman and our k-2 students! They did a great job performing for Grandparents' Day 2017!

ART SHOW

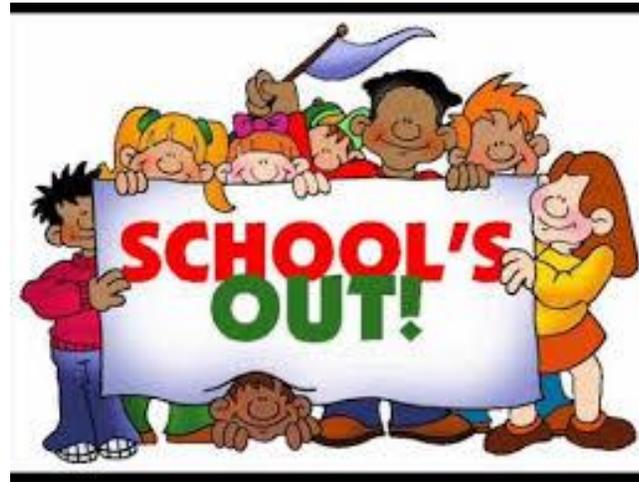

- Mrs. Johnson had the annual Art Show on Thursday, May 4. Every student in grades k-5 had a piece of artwork on display. Thank you Mrs. Johnson for your hard work and dedication to Bradford Elementary.

COMING SOON

- Wednesday, May 17 – Field Day
- Thursday, May 18 – Last Day for students
 - Awards Assembly for grades 3-5 @ 8:30
 - Awards Assembly for grades k-2 immediately after grades 3-5 (around 9:45)

QUESTIONS?

